

AD405

(In Japanese history 285 Xie. 120 yrs too early) writing was introduced into Japan from Korea.

405

Augustine reported that the Ostrogothic chieftain RADAGAISUS made human sacrifices to Jupiter when he invaded Italy in 405.

405

Other Germanic peoples entered
Italy

C405

1912 Dates J-BK

348 - C405

PRUDENTIUS

"Daily Rounds, or CATHAMERON," a collection of 12 lengthy hymns: "The Soul's Conflict" or religious allegories; "The Crowns" fourteen hymns in praise of martyrs; two books "Against Symmachus" and more poems by Prudentius. AURELIUS CLEMENS
PRUDENTIUS, 348 → C405

The greatest Christian poet of the early Latin Church.

born in Spain 348

405

Stetich's plan was not carried out. In 405 the invasion of RADAGAISUS prevented them from being implemented, but it also kept Alaric quiet.

405/406

Western - Ostrogoths

RAOAGAIUS invaded Italy.

405 AD.

The great scholar JEROME completed the first Latin translation of the Bible. He "VULGATE;" meaning in the common tongue, became the basis for other translations for centuries.